HSD Newsletter

Each month HSD publishes a newsletter. The newsletter has important updates and information regarding the school. It is the parents/guardians responsibility to come into the studio and pick up a newsletter. A newsletter is also available on the web at www.hollywoodstudioofdance.org.

Preparation for Recital Day

- No checks will be accepted at the recital. Cash or credit cards only!
- HSD will have a mandatory dress rehearsal for Saturday's performance. If you miss the dress rehearsal your child may not perform in Saturday's recital.
- All students must arrive by 8:30am at Armstrong High School on Saturday, June 6.
- All parents are required to purchase a recital ticket for both days.
- Years 1-4 will receive their trophies after the Saturday performance.
- Years 5+ will receive their trophies after the Sunday performance. All students must stay in costume on Sunday to take a group photo.
- Students should not arrive in costume. You will be given enough time to dress after arrival.
- Girls should not have underwear underneath their costumes. Underwear show through costumes and can be seen with the stage lights.
- Bring a pillow and blanket for young children. The recital day is at least 6-8 hours with dress rehearsal and the actual show.
- You will need to provide lunch for your children. HSD will not provide lunch for students.
- Check your child's bag to make sure you have all the costumes and the accessories. Students with incomplete costumes may not perform in the recital.
